

So You Want to Be a Professor Tips for Interview Success Seminar

As a follow-up to your interest in the So You Want to Be a Professor Workshop, WCN's Diversity Advisory Committee invites you participate in a FREE 90-minute virtual

So You Want to Be a Professor Tips for Interview Success Seminar

When: Tuesday, 11/14/23, from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.

Where: Zoom

Get valuable insight into interviews for nurse educator positions as well as how best to respond to interview questions. Take this opportunity to practice your response to common interview questions and get more comfortable talking about yourself.

The second half of this 90-minute session will be a facilitated Q and A with Nurse Educators. Attendees will have an opportunity to learn first-hand from experts on what the interview process is for becoming a nurse educator.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

1. Demonstrate understanding of the various types of interview questions and strategies for responding to each
2. Know the 5 areas being assessed with each question and modify responses accordingly
3. Able to craft a behavioral-based interview response using the STAR technique
4. Explain how your expert experience translates into teaching nursing students
5. Know what a typical interview for a nurse educator covers and how to best answer questions specific to this role

Space is limited to 40 participants, so register early to reserve your spot!
