

WCN Diverse Nurse Faculty Mentorship Program

The Washington Center for Nursing is seeking nurse faculty to participate in a mentorship program to support diverse educators relatively new to their roles.

WCN is now accepting applications for both MENTORS and MENTEES for the third year of our Diverse Nurse Faculty Mentorship Program. The program's first two years were a success, and we are excited to offer it again in 2024. This program aims to support diverse nurse faculty in their roles as educators.

PROGRAM COMMITMENT

This program will run for 12-months, starting January 25, 2024.

- 1 Both MENTEES and MENTORS agree to meet for at least one hour once a month, either in person or remotely, over one year.

MENTORS: We welcome mentors from all backgrounds to apply. Mentor applicants must have at least two years of leadership experience.

Mentors must commit to:

- 2 Attend a two-day Mentor Training Institute to prepare for this role and important responsibilities. The dates for this event are from (8 a.m.-4:30 p.m.) Thursday, January 25, and Friday, January 26, 2024 (Professional Development Contact Hours available.)
- 3 Complete the Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) assessment prior to the Mentor Training Institute.
- 4 Participate in one-hour group coaching sessions monthly for up to 5 months via virtual conference from February through July 2024.

MENTEES: We welcome nurse faculty from diverse backgrounds to apply.

Mentees must commit to:

- 2 Attend day one of the Mentor Training Institute to prepare for this program. The dates for this event are from (8 a.m.-4:30 p.m.) Thursday, January 25. (Professional Development Contact Hours available.)
- 3 Complete the Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) assessment prior to the Mentor Training Institute.
- 4 Participate in one-hour group coaching sessions monthly for up to 5 months via virtual conference from February through July 2024.
